“ Fred, Denise & Monica,
My heart broke when I heard the sad news. Dorothy was like a big sister to me when we were young. While she and her parents still lived outside of Louisiana, they would stay with us whenever they had a chance to visit LA. She taught me how to crochet on one of those visits. We talked about all things girly. I treasure those memories and hope that your memories will carry you through this really difficult time.
Love,
