

Gary Paul Daigle Sr

March 27, 1944 - June 6, 2022

Gary Paul Daigle Sr. passed away peacefully on June 6, 2022 at the age of 78. Beloved husband of 57 years to Nevillyn Donewar Daigle. Father of Gary Paul Daigle (Tina), Chad Daigle (Cindy), Patrick Daigle (Elizabeth), and the late Eric Daigle. Grandfather of Michael, Avery, Lillian, Grant, and Gionnie. Great-grandfather of Zoe. Brother of Clyde Daigle, Dennis Daigle (Betty), Damian Daigle (Karen), Dolores Fuqua (Allen), Mark Daigle, Brian Daigle (Amy), and the late Clayton Daigle (Virginia). Son of the late Anna Marie Tripolino Daigle and Clyde Daigle. Also survived by many loving nieces, nephews, other relatives and friends.

Gary is a graduate of St. Aloysius High School, Class of 1962. He served his country in the U.S. Army during the Vietnam War and later, owned and operated Daigle Consulting, providing consulting in the structural steel industry.

The family would like to extend their gratitude to the staff of Fresenius Kidney Care of Marrero for their care and compassion.

All of us that knew him, knew that he was the “go to” person to answer, solve or fix anything because he was a jack-of-all-trades and a master of many. His love for his sons filled his heart and when they married, his heart grew bigger for his sweet daughters-in-law. Then the grandchildren came and his heart burst with joy.

The visitation will be held at Holy Spirit Catholic Church, 6201 Stratford Place in Algiers, LA on Saturday, June 11, 2022 from 9:30am to 11am. A Memorial Mass will follow. Interment will take place at St. Bartholomew Cemetery in Algiers Point.

In lieu of flowers, donations in his memory may be made to St. Jude Children’s Research Hospital (www.stjude.org).

Mothe Funeral Home is assisting the family during this difficult time. Family and friends are encouraged to share their condolences, stories and memories by visiting: www.mothefunehome.com

“ What is a “Big Brother”? Some may be surprised to know that Gary was a big brother to seven siblings. Yes, we are Catholic. And we don’t know how our parents were able to provide for us. So, just what is a big brother? Well, Gary was the first born and he was our role model. We trusted him to stand up for us. We wanted to emulate him in many ways (mostly good and sometimes not so). But we all grew up to respect him because he respected us and respected his elders to set a good example for us. He was frank and honest to a fault. But he was usually right. We were competitive as kids and would strive to be better at things than our big brother. I wanted to play football and run track like Gary. I worked a couple of summers at Orleans Materials as Gary had. This experience in the steel fabricating industry gave us lots in common to talk about in subsequent years. I moved away from New Orleans, but Gary was always bonding with all his siblings. Those in the family that stayed in the New Orleans area would frequently get together for meals at their homes or at local restaurants. I missed that very much because the family together generated lots of love and laughter. But the large gatherings didn’t allow any of us to really get to know each other as adults (one on one). We all need that one on one time with each other. I’m so grateful for the two weeks Gary and Nevy spent at our home in Hoover, AL after Hurricane IDA. That was quality time I had with Gary. I found Gary to be a caring, selfless, generous, and loving father, grandfather, and of course “Big Brother”. So, I say this in the present tense, “Gary is and will always be my “Big Brother”.

Love always unconditionally!

“ Gary was my brother-in-law for 53 years. When I first met Gary I was a bit afraid of him. He seemed bigger than life to me, telling his stories and filling the room with his laughter! Oh, how he could laugh. Over the years, I realized I had nothing to fear from Gary since he had a big heart, a deep love for family, and the ability to persevere - always with a smile, a chuckle, or a big belly laugh. Last year he and Nevy stayed with us after hurricane Ida. It was a special time and I loved having them visit our home. What I loved most about Gary is the way he held the family together after Gam's death. Even though we are in Alabama and couldn't be at many of the family events, he often called Dennis and they talked and laughed for hours. He was an exceptional man and a great brother. Rest In Peace.
