“ "Uncle" Joe was a kind man who gave Mark and I Super Bowl tickets and sent Hap Glaudi a Voo Doo doll. They then read the names of Mark and I on the air on television. That's the kind of "Man" he was. He would give you the shirt off of his back and help you out any way he could. Rest in Peace Uncle Joe, you will NEVER be forgotten. My thoughts and prayers are with the rest of the family.
Sincerely,
Brian Breaux Sr.

“ My children absolutely adored Peeps when we attended 10am mass at VOL. He was so loving and kind that everyone in the cry room would ask if he was their grandfather.

My sincere condolences to the Palermo family. Thank you for sharing Peeps with us!

“ Oh Mr. Joe with all the jokes, laughs, hugs, kisses and caring about everyone will be missed so much. To work with you was an honor, but to have you as a friend was so special to me and Amy. You were a sweetheart of a person and I'm glad for you that you will now be back with the love of your life, Miss Elaine. Send us some of those delicious stuffed crabs and artichokes. Rest in peace.
